

I do not think by keeping the no call law as is, will hurt the banks business. I do not know any one who would make a disson on there bank need from a phone call.